NewBase Moves into Downtown Wichita

Wichita, Kan. – NewBase, an online marketing strategies company, has opened its doors in downtown Wichita. The company has set up shop at The Labor Party, 216 N. Mosley, Suite 230. This new space is necessary to accommodate employee growth.

In late 2010, NewBase acquired BurrusCarr, LLC, a Wichita-based web design company. Digital strategist Nathan Carr and graphic designer Jenny Guhrke, both former BurrusCarr employees, joined the NewBase team after the acquisition.

“We are excited to bring Nathan and Jenny on board,” said Henry Tafolla, NewBase owner. “Both bring needed skills that will help us better meet the growing needs of our clients.”

NewBase provides online marketing strategies to help local businesses find new clients by making every aspect of their online presence measurable, targeted and, most importantly, effective. To find out more about the services NewBase offers, visit NewBaseLLC.com, for more information.
